INDEX

Vol. 84, Nos. 1-6, January-December 1993

ADAK to the rescue 3:1
Albrittain, J.W., RADM, MC (Ret.), in memoriam 6:29
Alcoholism treatment, innovations in 6:6
AMBU bag (hand-operated resuscitator) 2:13
Andersen, C., LT, MC, remembers Somalia 2:10
Antibiotic self-infusion for active duty personnel 4:29
Apneic nerve agent casualties, mechanical ventilation of 2:13
Autopsy of John Wilkes Booth: reexamining the evidence 1:17
Autotransfusion
  letter to editor 6:28
  technique saves Navy hospital a bundle 4:1
Avoiding risk, the cost of 3:8

BACTERIA
  rapid screening for biological threat agents by the polymerase chain reaction 3:26
Baird, J.K., LCDR, MSC, malaria field studies at NAMRU-2, Indonesia 2:15
Bangs, M.J., LT, MSC, malaria field studies at NAMRU-2, Indonesia 2:15
Beecham, H.J. III, CAPT, MC, medicine in the tropics course: preparing Navy doctors for global medical challenges 4:14
Behmer, C.L., LT, NC, USNR, a comparison of Navy and civilian health habits 3:16 Beneficiaries patient encounter skills development 6:14
Biological threat agents, rapid screening by the polymerase chain reaction 3:26
Black, J.H., CAPT, MC, flag officer selectee 3:3
Blood
  autotransfusion technique saves Navy hospital a bundle 4:1
Bohnker, B.K., CDR, MC, putting out the smoking lamp 6:1
Booth, J.W., identification and autopsy: reexamining the evidence 1:17
Breathing apparatus mechanical ventilation of apneic nerve agent casualties 2:13
Bright, A., ENS, MSC, Naval Hospital Twentynine Palms: a new oasis in the desert 5:1
Brooks, J.E., LT, Commander Seventh Fleet conducts first medical symposium 3:5
Brown, J.A., CDR, MC, the cost of avoiding risk 3:8
Butler, F.K., Jr., CAPT, MC, patient encounter skills development 6:14

CAIRO, Egypt (NAMRU-3) sewage contaminated fresh water holding tank at a remote shore facility, disinfection of 2:27
Campbell, J.R., CDR, MSC, rapid screening for biological threat agents by the polymerase chain reaction 3:26
Carrington, T., HN, scales cliff to rescue accident victim 3:12
Charting a new course for Navy medical education 6:4
Chinese airliner makes emergency landing 3:1
Civilian and Navy health habits, a comparison of 3:16
Combat
  war at sea: unique challenges for Navy medicine 1:10
Commander Seventh Fleet conducts first medical symposium 3:5
Comparison of Navy and civilian health habits 3:16
Corpsmen scale cliff to rescue accident victim 3:12
Cost of avoiding risk 3:8
Cotton, J.B., CAPT, MC,USNR, the gospel on leadership according to John 3:14
Course (see also Training), tropical medicine 4:14
Cowan, M.L., CAPT, MC, reminiscences of Operation Restore Hope 2:1
Crabbe, J.R., CDR, MSC, rapid screening for biological threat agents by the polymerase chain reaction 3:26
Crawford, A.M., M.A., managing Navy medical treatment facilities: the role of executive education 5:19
Crutcher, J.M., CDR, MC, USNR, medicine in the tropics course: preparing Navy doctors for global medical challenges 4:14

DEJANON, J., HM3, scales cliff to rescue accident victim 3:12
Derrer, D.S., CDR, MSC, USNR, innovations in alcoholism treatment 6:6
Disinfection of a sewage contaminated fresh water holding tank at a remote shore facility: potential for illness and injury 2:27
Divers
  Fly-Away Advanced Care System used in recompression chamber 6:26
Douglas, M., LTJG, MSC, USNR, Naval Hospital Twentynine Palms: a new oasis in the desert 5:1
Dysart, N.K., CAPT, MC, flag officer selectee 3:3

EDUCATION (see also Training)
  charting a new course for Navy medical education 6:4
  managing Navy medical treatment facilities: the role of executive education 5:19
Emesis, chronic, during military flight operations, self-regulation techniques for treatment of 5:30

FALKENBERRY, J.K., HMC(PJ), the innocent flame of ignorance 6:18
Figueroa, R., a doctor remembers Somalia 2:10
Fisher House: a port in a storm 1:1
Fisher, Z. 1:1,5

NOTE: Figures indicate the issue and page in Volume 84 of Navy Medicine. For example, 3:1 shows the article may be found in issue No. 3 (May-June 1993), page 1.
